COUNTY NEWS.

Moscow.

The many friends of W. T. Loggins over the county who are concerned in the progress of our schools, will be pleased to learn that he is a candidate for the office of County Superintendent of Schools. Mr. Loggins would make an efficient and attentive Superintendent, he being splendidly qualified in every way for the place, and we feel that under his leadership the local school would receive the proper attention and the patrons have reason to be pleased as never before. We want public officials who have no pets and who will accord to all a square and fair hearing and deal. We consider Mr. Loggins that kind of a man.

We need good farming, good schools, good homes and other good things, but most of all we need good citizenship.

The many automobile owners in the county should form some kind of an organization for the betterment of our roads and insist upon them being properly graded and dragged. If this is done one can use the roads every day in the year with satisfaction.

H. J. Hazlewood and family have moved into their new home in east end. Miss Clara Waller and Norman Morris of Rossville were Monday callers in town.

Bad roads stand between the farmer, his son, and daughter, and education, profits, churches, recreation and other desirable things.

H. M. Boswell, R. N. Ware, R. M. Bevis and Joe Howard were in Somerville Wednesday.

The truest life; the noblest life; the most glorious life, is that which looks to the welfare of others, and often makes the sacrifice to others.

Shirley Stevenson won the auto in the local contest. At the windup there were but two contestants namely, Mary Ella Simmons and Shirley Stevenson.

The private school, Mrs. C. N. Crook teacher, will start Monday afternoon. About fifteen or more scholars will attend.

Humility is one of the virtues of a Christian, and there are others that speak louder than words.

Be pleasant every morning until 10 o'clock—the rest of the day will take care of itself.

W. S. Baxter, a good citizen of Williston vicinity was a Sabbath guest of local friends.

Prof. Allen will not be at the head of the local public school the coming term and at this writing his successor is unknown to the patrons. Some of the patrons thought well of Prof. Allen as a man and teacher while others took the opposite view. The Moscow School needs a settled, competent teacher badly, one who will insist upon discipline in the school rooms and on the grounds. The lack of this gave much concern to some of the patrons during the term.

Moscow's first bale of cotton sold on the local market Saturday for 16 cents a pound. The bale weighed 570 pounds and was bought by the Moscow Mercantile Co. The bale and seed brought the owner, a negro, $90.00. Pruette and Robinson also bought a bale at the above price the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton of Williston were Sabbath visitors with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sisco.

Every industry in the country is on a get-together basis except the greatest of them all—the farmers. Organized industry always unloads its burdens on the unorganized.

An editorial in a well known Weekly sometime ago said—85 per cent of the country boys and girls get all the education they ever get in a one-room, cross-road, ungraded school. Every progressive community is wiping out these schoolhouses thru consolidation. There are many crying needs but the consolidated school is one of the greatest. Good schools and good roads.

The world looks bright when you think right.

Galloway

The protracted meeting is going on at the Methodist church. It is well attended and every body seems to be enjoying the sermons very much.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church met with Mrs. A. J. Phillips Tuesday afternoon. After transacting the business delightful refreshments were served, after which the society adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. R. Phillips in October.

A rook party was given by Miss Nina Moore last Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Fannie Mai Ricketts who has been her guest for the past week. The guests present were: Misses Annie Dale, Mary Shore, Clara Taylor, Houston Cooke, Frizzelle Phillips, Doris Harrison, Betty Williams, Vivian Walker, Blanche Griffin, Messrs. Dixon Clack, Threatte Taylor, Haywood Wall, Arthur and Charlie Phillips, and Erle Griffin.

Miss Nina Moore left Monday for Jackson where she will begin her college course at Union University.

Mr. Odell McKnight of Arlington spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. McKnight.

Miss Ruth Griffin returned to school Monday after an absence of two weeks on account of illness.

Judges in $50 Cotton Contest

H. F. Mathis of J. F. Mathis & Co., Memphis cotton men, who announced last spring that he would give $50 this fall for the most valuable bale of cotton grown in Fayette county was here last week and announced the judges who will act in awarding the prize. They are Mr. Callahan, of Wynne, Love & Co. Memphis, Mr. Beane of Rainer-Connell Co., Memphis, and J. W. Moffatt, county demonstration agent for Fayette county.

Blanks for entries in the contest are being printed by The Falcon this week and will be ready for distribution in a few days.

This contest should arouse an interest throughout the county and as it costs nothing to enter the contest there should be a large entry list.

The following firms in the county can give information to contestants: Somerville Supply Co., Somerville; Moscow Mercantile Co., Moscow; W. T. Cartwright, Oakland; Bailey Morrison, Laconia; DeWitt Boswell, Macon; or it may be consigned to Rainer-Connell Co. or Wynne, Love & Co., Memphis.

Fair Directors Meet

An interesting meeting of the directors of the county fair was held at the court house last Saturday with a pretty fair attendance.

Frank D. Fuller, secretary of the Tri-State Fair at Memphis was present and made a talk urging that some action be taken to arrange for a Fayette county exhibit at the Memphis fair the latter part of the present month. A resolution was passed authorizing a committee to take up the matter and see if a sufficient number of articles could be secured in the short time remaining before the fair to make a creditable showing for the county, and if in their judgement such showing can be made the committee is authorized to proceed with the arranging of the exhibit. Following are the members of this committee:

J. N. Maxwell, J. W. Moffatt, J. H. Simmons, J. P. Perry, A. S. Thompson, R. C. Brinkley, C. H. Hayley, G. W. Crawford, Dr. G. T. Brinkley, A. H. Harvey, A. H. Sanders, L. F. Catron, J. A. McNabb, E. C. Boswell, R. E. Rogers, W. H. Claxton, J. A. D. Moore, B. F. Thomas, C. C. Russell, J. A. Weber, H. A. Allen, W. H. McFadden, W. T. Cartwright, J. P. Matthews, W. J. Murphy, Tom Seward, E. W. Dunn, W. K. Wadlington, C. B. Piper, Cheatham Waller, J. L. Crawford, J. D. Hewlett, J. W. Matheson, J. M. Crews, J. J. Burnett Sr., H. M. Nicholson, C. J. Harris, J. G. Hamer, P. R. Beasley, Earnest L. Anderson, J. B. Burnett, T. A. Crawford, J. B. Summers, J. E. Parks, J. D. McCarley, Sam Parks.

The above committee was requested to proceed at once in their respective neighborhoods to see what themselves and their neighbors could get ready to show at the Tri-State Fair and to notify W. T. Loggins, secretary of the county fair at Somerville at the very earliest possible moment. The time is short to work up an exhibit now, but we can by the proper co-operation and a little earnest effort secure a fine lot of farm produce to send to the Memphis fair to show the work that Fayette county farmers are doing.

A resolution passed at the previous meeting making every exhibitor at the local fair furnish his own tables was rescinded and the committee having in charge the building of pens for live stock was instructed to have built a suitable number of tables for the use of exhibitors. Several exhibitors have signified a desire to furnish their own tables and they will, of course, have the permission of the management.

J. N. Maxwell, C. C. Williams and J. A. McQueen were appointed a committee of three to solicit funds to pay a band for the two days of the fair and make arrangements to have one employed for the two days.

Encouraging reports continue to come in from over the county as to the interest in the coming fair and the preparation of stock and farm products to be exhibited here. There is every indication that the fair will be well patronized in way of exhibits and attendance.

It's Foolish to Suffer.

When so many Somerville people are pointing the way out.

You may be brave enough to stand backache or headache or dizziness. But, if in addition urination is discovered, look out! If you don't try to fix your sick kidneys, you may fall into the clutches of dangerous disease before you know it. But, if you live more carefully, and help your kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills, you can stop the pains you have and avoid future danger as well. Don't experiment—use the remedy, Somerville people are publicly endorsing. Read the case:

Mrs. J. H. Webb, Somerville says: "I had considerable trouble from disordered kidneys. My back pained me severely, especially mornings when I first got up and it was almost impossible for me to stoop to do any sweeping or dusting. Headaches or dizzy spells added to my misery. Doan's Kidney Pills cured all these ailments and I tell of my experience, hoping that it will help other sufferers."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Webb had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
